7 Industry Terms and Definitions

Term	Definition
Access to Capital	The defined process for making a Withdrawal from a Scheme including the normal and maximum times for a Withdrawal to be paid, the calculation and components of the price to be applied and the restrictions that may apply.
Accounts	The financial reports of the Scheme, including a Statement of Financial Performance, Statement of Financial Position, Statement of Cash Flows and notes.
Accumulation Fund	A Superannuation Fund where the member receives a sum of money (or pension equivalent) that is equal to the accumulated value of contributions paid into the Fund on that member's behalf plus earnings thereon net of expenses. Contributions may be made by the member or their employer sponsor (if any). The investment risk is borne by the member. Equivalent to a Defined Contribution Fund.
Active Management	A style of investment management that seeks to attain returns above a set benchmark by constantly monitoring and if necessary changing asset allocation and security selection.
Administration Fee Adviser	This is a fee to cover the general administration of the fund. A person who advises individuals on suitable forms of investment for their assets, considering their tax position, liabilities, personal circumstances, etc. May also be referred to as a Financial Planner.
Adviser Network	Companies or networks/groups partnerships that provide financial advice and sales, possibly in addition to other services (eg. taxation and accountancy advice, legal advice, general insurance).
Adviser Remuneration	Any remuneration paid to Advisers as compensation for advising, selling and maintaining business.
Aligned Advisers	Those Advisers (other than in-house sales staff) who have an agreement with one Manager relating to the sale of products. These Advisers may either sell only that Manager's products, or they may be able to sell the products offered by other Managers which they have an agreement with.
All Ordinaries Index (AOI)	A broad top down capital weighted index of 500 companies (based on market capitalisation with no liquidity requirements). This will be the S&amp;P/ASX "headline" index. Within the umbrella of the AOI, the ASX has prepared a series of benchmark indices, as follows:

FSC Guidance Note No. 5.00

Term	Definition
	S&amp;P/ASX 50 An index that is retained as the divider between large cap and mid cap stocks.
	S&amp;P/ASX 100 A benchmark for large active investment managers where the emphasis is on having sufficient liquidity to minimise adjustment costs from activity. It would cover large cap and mid cap stocks.
	S&amp;P/ASX 200 A benchmark for replicators where there is both sufficient market capitalisation to ensure a realistic holding and liquidity to ensure that shares can be bought or sold within a reasonable timeframe.
	S&amp;P/ASX 300 A benchmark which is set near the limits of institutional investability to cater for investment managers who have expertise in small companies. Given that the focus is on investability, liquidity is a fundamental criterion in determining eligible stocks.
Allocated Pension or Annuity	An account established to provide a flexible, regular income stream. It has special tax and social security features. The investment risk remains with the Investor. An Allocated Pension may be exhausted prior to death. In that respect, this product is different from a lifetime Annuity, which is paid for the life of the Investor.
Annual Benefit Statement	A document from the trustee that must be sent to members of a Superannuation Fund or Approved Deposit Fund on an annual basis which advises details of the member's entitlements including a summary of the member's account balance. Note: s1017D of the Corporations Act 2001 sets out Periodic Statements for Retail Customers for Financial Products that have an investment component.
Annuity	A regular periodic payment to a person usually made in exchange for an initial lump sum payment. Also refer to definition of Complying Pension/Annuity.
APIR Principal and Representative Identifier	The industry code used to identify participants in the financial services industry.
APIR Product Identification Code	The industry code used to identify unlisted investment Products.
Approved Deposit Fund	A Superannuation Entity that can accept eligible termination payments.
Approved Trustee	A constitutional corporation approved by APRA under SIS. The role of an Approved Trustee is to act as a Trustee of Public Offer Funds.

Term	Definition
Asset Allocation (%)	The percentage of assets held in each Asset Class in a Fund's Portfolio.
Asset Class	A category of financial assets. The major asset classes are shares, property, fixed interest and cash, which in turn can be broken down further to include domestic or international shares, domestic or international fixed interest, direct or indirect property etc.
Associate	Has the same meaning as Division 2 of the Corporations Act 2001.
Attribution Analysis	An investment performance analysis based on comparisons with agreed benchmark(s). Allocation Effect: Measures the impact of the decision to allocate assets differently than those in the benchmark. Security Selection Effect: Measures the effect of choosing securities, which perform differently from those in the benchmark. Interaction Effect: Jointly measures the effect of allocation and selection decisions. Interaction is positive if the overweight sectors outperform, or underweight sectors under-perform.
Authorised Investments	The investments which a Fund is permitted to make under its Governing Rules.
Badged Product	An investment Product that is administered and/or managed by one organisation, but labelled with the name of another organisation which is typically responsible for Distribution of the Product.
Basis Point	A basis point is 0.01 of one percent. Eg 50 basis points equals 0.5%.
Bear Market	A declining financial market.
Benchmark	A measure used for comparison of investment returns over a period of time.
Benchmark Asset Allocation (%)	The Benchmark percentage of assets in each Asset Class.
Beneficial Interest	An interest in an asset or pool of assets. The Investor does not legally own the asset(s) but has an interest in the asset or pool of assets. The interest is usually measured by the value of the pool and apportioning that value amongst all Investors – the allocation normally being by units on issue.
Beneficiary	A person who has a Beneficial Interest in a Fund.

FSC Guidance Note No. 5.00

Term	Definition
Bonus	The allocation to an Investor in certain Life Office Products.
Bonus Units	Additional Units issued free to existing Investors, usually in a predetermined ratio to the number of Units already held.
Borrowing	Refers to amounts loaned to a Scheme.
Broker	Refers to an agent who handles the orders of Investors to purchase and sell Securities, commodities, insurance policies, or other property. The provision of this service attracts a Brokerage. Note: FSRA has introduced restrictions on use of certain terminology including 'Broker' (s923A&B of the Corporations Act 2001). Also reference should be made to using the term Australian Financial Services Licensee.
Brokerage	A fee charged by a Broker for the purchase or sale of a Security. Also, see Commission.
Bull Market	An advancing financial market.
Bundled	The inclusion of a number of services or features into a single Product. For example, a bundled Superannuation offering might combine the various activities of investment management, insurance, trustee activities and administration into a single service. An unbundled arrangement would see these activities being conducted by a range of different parties.
Buy / Sell Spread	The difference between the Entry and Exit Prices of a Fund.
Capital	The accumulated net amount contributed to a Fund by an Investor.
Capital Guarantee	An undertaking that the realisable value of an investment will not fall below the value calculated in accordance with the relevant Product's Governing Rules.
Capital Protected	An investment portfolio managed so as to reduce or eliminate the risk of capital losses, usually through the use of quantitative techniques such as protection overlays.
Capital Reorganisation Reinvested Return	See Total Return.
Cash Surrender Value	The amount of cash a person may obtain by voluntarily surrendering a life insurance policy. May also be called Surrender Value.
Client	Clients include Investors and Advisers.
Closed Fund	A Fund which does not accept new Investors. Additional contributions from existing Investors may be accepted.

Term	Definition
Commission	A fee charged by a Broker or Financial Planner for the execution of a purchase or sale of a managed investment. Alternately, can be a fixed amount per transaction or a percentage of the total value of the transaction. Commission may also be referred to as Brokerage and is normally deducted from the gross amount contributed to the Product prior to investment. Commission may be negotiable between the Client and their Adviser. Commission or Brokerage on investment into Superannuation or managed investment Products is a different remuneration to anything that is paid on an ongoing basis or as a fee for service. These amounts are disclosed separately and may in certain cases, depending on the Product, be negotiated between the Investor and their Adviser.
Common Funds	Funds established by Trustee Companies to pool money, initially from estates managed by these companies, but more recently from the public in general.
Commutation	The process of converting a pension or Annuity into a lump sum.
Compliance Committee	A committee whose responsibility is to ensure an entity complies with: Law, Governing Rules, industry standards, professional body standards and internal policies.
Compliance Plan	Details the range of measures designed to protect the rights and interests of Scheme members. The Compliance Plan of a Managed Investment Scheme must include, at the minimum, a description of the structures, systems and processes used by a Responsible Entity to ensure that it is complying with the law and the Scheme Constitution. It must be lodged with the ASIC and audited annually.
Complying Pension/Annuity	A series of payments received over the remaining lifetime of a pensioner. The pension may be paid by a Superannuation Fund or by a Life Insurance Company. The pension must meet a number of legislated requirements. For example the payment must be made at least annually, fixed in value in any one year, but must be indexed in successive years to the lesser of CPI or 5%. It may be reversionary and does not have a residual capital value. A complying pension is subject to concessional taxation and RBL treatment.
Complying Superannuation Fund	A regulated Superannuation Fund that has not been given a notice from APRA that it is non-complying.
Consolidated Fund Manager	A Group of Fund Managers with the same parent company.
Constitution	The Constitution of a Managed Investment Scheme defines the rights, responsibilities and beneficial interests of both

Term	Definition
	Investors and the Responsible Entity in relation to the Scheme. See also Governing Rules.
Consumer Price Index (CPI)	Measures the price of a basket of items typifying goods and services purchased by Australian households across 8 capital cities. CPI allows comparisons of the relative cost of living over time and is used as a measure of inflation. CPI is also used to determine the inflation adjustment if any, that Investors may be entitled to under the Capital Gains Tax sections of the Income Tax Assessment Acts.
Contractual Regular Premium Business	Business where there is a contractual requirement for the client to pay future ongoing premiums and where future entitlements to benefits will change if premiums cease.
Contribution fee	This is the fee for the initial and every subsequent investment you make to the fund (or that may be made on your behalf, eg by an employer).
Corporate Governance	Is concerned with the way corporate entities are governed, as distinct from the way businesses within those companies are managed. Corporate governance addresses the issues facing boards of directors, such as the interaction with top management, and relationships with the owners and others interested in the affairs of the company, including creditors, debt financiers, analysts, auditors and corporate regulators.
Corporations Act link Cum-Distribution	http://scaleplus.law.gov.au/html/pasteact/3/3448/top.htm Income is included in the unit price.
Custodian	An organisation which holds assets and settles transactions on those assets (eg. Cash, securities) on behalf of third parties. A custodian is not subject to the same fiduciary duties as a trustee.
Custodian Fee	A fee payable to the Custodian of a Fund as payment for services performed in the role of Custodian.
Debt Security	Borrowed Funds that must be repaid by the entity issuing the Debt Security.
Defined Benefit Fund	A Fund where the member receives a benefit that is defined by the Trust Deed of the Superannuation Fund.
Derivatives	A financial instrument that derives (hence its name) its value from the price of a physical security or an index.
Direct-Response Promotional Statement	A Promotional Statement, which includes an inducement for recipients of the statement to communicate directly with the issuer of the statement in connection with an offer made in the statement.
Disclosing Entity	A disclosing entity is an entity that has issued “Enhanced Disclosure (ED)” securities. Normally ED securities are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Quoted on the Australian Stock Exchange;</li></ul>

Term	Definition
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Securities (other than debentures) issued under a prospectus with a minimum of 100 holders of the security at all times;</li><li>• Securities (other than debentures) issued as consideration for an acquisition under a takeover scheme or a Part 5.1 compromise arrangement, and at least 100 holders have held the securities of that class at all times;</li><li>• Debentures of a borrowing corporation.</li></ul> The Corporations Act 2001 provides a detailed definition of ED securities and exclusions. ASIC may provide relief from the disclosing entity requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 by way of Policy Statements or Class Orders.
Distribution	The amount that is paid to continuing Scheme Holders after the end of a Distribution Period. Note that this should be interpreted to include income, realised capital gain and any return of capital.
Distribution or Dividend Reinvestment	An investor-authorised purchase of additional units in their investments using Distributions received, where this relates to a company, the reinvestment would be called a Dividend Reinvestment.
Distribution Period	The period within which Distributions (eg. interest payments and realised capital gains) accrue before a Distribution Payment at, or after, the end of the period.
Distribution Return	The Total Return less the Growth Return. This represents the contribution to Total Return made by the Scheme's Distributions, which may be of an income or capital nature.
Diversification	A deliberate strategy aimed at reducing the impact that volatility in one asset class, sector or market will have on your overall portfolio of assets.
Dividend	The payout from a company of a portion of its earnings to its shareholders in proportion to the number of shares the shareholder owns.
Dollar-Cost Averaging	The practice of investing amounts of money at regular intervals, regardless of whether the securities markets are declining or rising.
Effective Exposure	The percentage of gross assets held in each asset class including the impact of derivative positions.
Eligible Termination Payment (ETP)	Eligible Termination Payments or ETPs, as they are perhaps more commonly known can generally be described as:

FSC Guidance Note No. 5.00

Term	Definition
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Payments made in consequence of a termination of employment;</li><li>• Payments from superannuation funds or approved deposit funds, including death benefit payments; and</li><li>• Certain other payments or amounts, including payments arising from the disposal of the assets of a small business where the disposal proceeds are termed "CGT-exempt" amounts that the small business owner(s) roll(s)over to a superannuation fund to save for retirement. There are special rules for amounts to qualify as "CGT-exempt" amounts.</li></ul>
	There are exclusions to these payments. Typically the exclusions are as follows:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Where payments are made in consequence of a termination of employment, payments in lieu of unused annual leave or/and long-service leave are not part of the ETP. Also, where the payment includes amounts that are bona-fide redundancy payments and approved early retirement scheme payments made after 30 June 1994, they are tax free up to certain limits and are not included in the definition of ETPs.</li><li>• Where payments are made from superannuation funds that are income stream or pension payments, these payments are not included in the definition of ETPs.</li></ul>
	The Income Tax Assessment Acts 1936 &amp; 1997 set out the taxation requirements in respect of ETPs. Where a person receives an ETP as a result of termination of employment, it does not matter whether the ETP is rolled over to a superannuation fund or cashed, the provisions of the Surcharge legislation will ensure the payment is taxed if appropriate.
Emerging Markets	The term used to describe the financial markets of developing countries.
Employer Sponsored Superannuation Fund	A Regulated Superannuation Fund that has at least one employer sponsor and an agreement to make contributions to the Fund is in place between the employer and the trustee.
Entry Fee Entry Price	see Establishment Fee; also see Contribution Fee The price at which a unit in a Fund is issued at a point of time. The price includes any transactional costs applicable to the purchase. May also be referred to as "Allocation Price or Issue Price".

Term	Definition
Manager	The Product offerer and management entity directly responsible for the Product.
Mandate	In establishing investment management agreements, the client's investment instructions and objectives are typically set out in a document described as a mandate. The mandate can either form part of the investment management agreement or can be a separate document. The 1995 Standard Investment Management Agreement provides for the inclusion of client's investment instructions and objectives in schedule 2. Mandates include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The objectives agreed between the client and the manager</li><li>• Compliance matters</li><li>• Guidelines as to asset allocation; and</li><li>• Any provisions related to prohibited investments or gearing of the portfolio</li></ul>
Mark to Market	The revaluation of a security, such as a bond, share, or futures contract, at the last sales price on the market at the date of valuation.
Market Indices	A measurement reflecting the value of a defined group of securities.
Market-Linked Investment	A Fund that is marked to market.
Master Fund or Master Trust	Both names are used interchangeably for Schemes that allow individual Investors or smaller Superannuation Funds to channel money into one or more underlying Funds. A Master Fund may include one or more legal entities that cover Superannuation and Non-Superannuation investment. Where a Master Fund is a Complying Superannuation Fund, it may offer several Products including accumulation options, allocated and superannuation pensions. Member Discretionary Master Funds allow Investors to select from a menu of underlying investments. The menu is selected by the Master Fund operator and includes investments developed by the operator and investments managed by other Fund Managers. This type of Master Fund does not provide investment management services but may provide asset allocation overlay in certain circumstances. In Fund of Funds arrangements, the Investor selects a general risk profile and the Master Fund operator selects the underlying Funds from their own range of Funds and/or from external Managers.

Term	Definition
	Feeder Funds operate similarly to Fund of Funds arrangements. In this case, however, the Master Fund operator is also responsible for managing the underlying investments available to the Investor.
Materiality	Materiality is extensively defined in Accounting Standards. Materiality can be viewed as defining the magnitude of an omission or misstatement of financial or other information that makes it likely that a reasonable investor relying on the information provided would have either changed their mind or been influenced by the omission or misstatement. Materiality can be measured by reference to tests such as the dollar amount involved or % error allowances. In considering whether to adjust for errors, a judgement needs to be made as to whether the cost of correction is substantially more than the benefit derived from the change.
Member	Refer to the definition of “Investors”.
Member Fee Mezzanine Funds	This is a member account keeping fee charged by the fund. Funds that offer unsecured (or subordinated) debt to companies that are in a growth phase, but may not be able to raise additional equity capital or finance through traditional sources.
Minimum Initial Investment	The minimum amount needed to commence an investment as set out in Scheme’s offer documents.
Minimum Investment Balance	The smallest ongoing balance allowable to keep an investment open as set out in the Scheme’s Offer Document.
Month-End	Is the last calendar day of the month.
Net Assets	Total gross assets less total gross liabilities.
Net Assets Value Per Unit	Net assets divided by the number of units issued.
Net Pool Size	The Net Assets invested as a single investment portfolio for one or more Funds. Frequently several distinctly structured Funds are offered by an investment manager to different types of Investors but the underlying assets of those Funds are all invested in a common investment pool. Each “Fund” should only belong to one pool. Net Fund and pool size may be equal (where the pool is comprised of the one Fund only), but the Net Fund Size can never be greater than the size of the pool.
New Single Premium Business	Includes all premiums received which are non-contractual (ie do not require additional premiums to be paid). Examples include rollovers, annuities and insurance bond Products.
