

MEDIA RELEASE

7 August 2015

FSC announces a leaders summit for 2016

The Financial Services Council unveiled a new format for its annual gathering at the 18th FSC Annual Conference gala dinner last night (Thursday) on the Gold Coast.

CEO Sally Loane said: "This is the last year that the FSC Conference will operate in its current form."

"I am pleased to announce that in 2016 our annual event will be relaunched and rebranded as the FSC Leaders Summit."

"It will be a two day event from 20 July to 21 July 2016 and will be held at the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre."

Assistant Treasurer, Josh Frydenberg and former Prime Minister, Julia Gillard will make keynote addresses today, the closing day of the FSC Annual Conference.

[ENDS]

For further information contact: Robyn Tolhurst, Director of Communication T: 0411 177 773
E: rtolhurst@fsc.org.au

About the Financial Services Council

The Financial Services Council represents Australia's retail and wholesale funds management businesses, superannuation funds, life insurers, financial advisory networks, trustee companies and Public Trustees. The Council has over 110 members who are responsible for investing more than $2.5 trillion on behalf of 11.5 million Australians. The pool of funds under management is larger than Australia's GDP and the capitalisation of the Australian Securities Exchange and is the fourth largest pool of managed funds in the world. The Financial Services Council promotes best practice for the financial services industry by setting mandatory Standards for its members and providing Guidance Notes to assist in operational efficiency.